

School Readiness Skills

Social and Communication

- Can ask others to play and join in games with friends
- Can share and take turns
- Know how to ask for help from a teacher
- Confident to speak in a small group
- Can communicate with peers and adults

Literacy, Maths and Pre-School skills

- Can hold a pencil properly and good fine motor skills
- Can do careful counting not just rote counting
- Starting to form some letters (cursive)
- Can recognise name on a peg etc.
- Can trace or even write name
- Know basic 2D shapes
- Good gross motor skills, and used to having fun and taking risks outside (physical strength)

Independence

- Can leave parents at the door and enter the classroom
- Can listen and follow instructions
- Can use the toilet by themselves
- Can find their coat, bag and put own things away
- Can put on own coat and possibly shoes
- Good listening and attention skills
- Passionate and excited about learning

We are working with all Adventurers to support the development of the above.

List formed with help from local schools – March 2015